

Andromedea's Submission Guidelines

First of all, we are delighted that you trust us to showcase your film on our platform. We appreciate all of your films and we promise that we will treat all of your submissions with the utmost care and respect.

We are aware that submitting something so personal can be daunting; however our goal is to uplift creators and show them that their work matters. Beneath will be a list of very simple guidelines we advise you to follow. Failure to do so may result in the termination of your submission.

Guidelines

1. Ensure you own/have permission of the film you are submitting.
2. Ensure your film is copyright free or you have permission to use the music/audio included in the film.
3. Ensure your film has a Title Screen as well as a Credit Screen/Roll.
4. Ensure nothing of your film is plagiarised.
5. Your film must be between 1 - 10 minutes.
6. Ensure your film is animated.
7. Ensure you fill in the submission form correctly - List ALL artists included in the film.
8. The link to your film MUST be a Vimeo link.

What will we do after your submission has been processed?

You will receive an email stating whether your film will be showcased. Please allow up to fourteen days for a response. If successful, you will receive an email with more information about what's next! You will also be required to submit a thumbnail representing your film (1080px x 1440px).

Once submissions have been processed, they will be within our system for three months until deletion.
